FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University tennis player Tim Buwick (Glen Ellyn-Glenbard South) teamed with Rob Hopkins (Mokena-LincolnWay) to win the No. 3 doubles at the Mid-Continent Conference championship.

EIU took third in the MCC and had an 11-8 regular season record, identical to last year.

Buwick and Hopkins knocked off the No. 1 seed from Western Illinois in straight sets to win the MCC doubles title. They finished with a 10-1 doubles record, the best on the team.

Just a sophomore, Buwick was 9-7 at No. 6 singles during the regular season.

"I think Tim was involved in more three set matches than anyone else during the season . . . he had two big wins against Butler and Northern Iowa, both of which are Division I teams."
